

Children's Transport Team

The Team help children and young people to access the transport they need to get to and from school or college.

The team follow the rules set out in a document called the Children's Transport policy

The Children's Transport policy for Leeds can be found here <https://tinyurl.com/LeedsTransportPolicy>

The team promote the use of public transport

What kind of support do the Children's Transport team offer?

Many young people will receive a pass that allows them to travel on public transport for free e.g. buses, trains etc.

The team support young people to travel on public transport on their own – this is called independent travel training

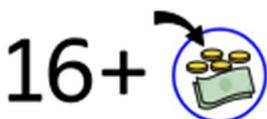

Independent Travel training gives young people the skills, knowledge and experience they need to be able to make these journeys with confidence and safety

The team can also offer a 50p mileage allowance, where for every mile travelled, 50p will be reimbursed. This gives you more control with your travel arrangements

Some young people will need extra help getting to and from school this may include minibus, taxi etc. The team help with this.

Some students at post-16 may receive a personal travel allowance to use towards travel.
